

December 1, 2016 edition of Five Fast Flashes

December 6th – Fredericton – HR Starter Kit for a Digital Age. Finding yourself about to go from 1 to 5 employees or more? This workshop is for businesses about to hire their first employee or 50th looking to expand their workforce to meet new business demand. Find out more here.

December 12th – The St. John's Board of Trade has had a busy year working with the City to better improve relationships, policy and to create an ecosystem for business to succeed. They invite you to attend the City of St. John's Budget 2017 with City Mayor and Council. Register here.

December 12th – Business over Breakfast: Catching Waves for Ocean Technology Start-Ups. Much has been made of Nova Scotia's advantage when it comes to ocean science and technology, but what is happening outside our borders and what can we learn from it to build on our promise here at home? Register here.

December 13th – Moncton – Market Intelligence & Research – A transformative opportunity. Who are your competitors and what's your unique value proposition? What opportunities are available to you to help grow your business? What disruptive forces could destroy your business in the next 12 months? Learn more about this session here.

February 21st to 23rd – Halifax – The Starting Point Student Entrepreneurship Conference has the theme: Change the World through Entrepreneurship. This event brings together entrepreneurial students from universities and colleges across Canada to hear from amazing speakers, learn from experts in their field, and earn money for their business. Read more here.

.