

E3 Peer Group – 2012/2013 Participant feedback

The E3 experience for me has allowed me to recognize that I'm not alone; it's become an empowered group of educators that understand the tangible benefits of learning via an experiential pedagogy.

- Zachary Vanthournout

Engaging and responsive to each participant – we share our backgrounds and experiences to promote growth and productivity by embracing our diversity within a safe, caring and supportive environment.

- Carolyn Barnhart

Being a part of E3 afforded me the opportunity to create both business and personal relationships with other like-minded professionals from across the province in an atmosphere that is comfortable, subjective and self-actualizing.

- Meghan Trenholm

E3 has been, without a doubt, the most empowering professional development opportunity of my teaching career thus far.

- Shannon Lavigne

Cette expérience permet de m'épanouir sur le plan professionnel tout en préservant l'authenticité de mes pratiques pédagogiques et en demeurant intégrée envers les autres.

- Monique Poirier

Participating in E3 has been one of the most purposeful and effective professional experiences of my life. Top notch.

- Philip Davis

All educators need to experience E3! It's riveting, empowering, and best of all, it has renewed by faith in the future of public education and its potential to foster a culture of experiential learning. The support around that province that E3 is creating has too been wonderful.

- Pamela Fowler

Connecting with like-minded individuals in this group has revitalized my love of teaching.

- Nick Fullerton

I really look forward to this. As soon as I get out of the vehicle, I can feel the stress leaving my toes. This is a cleanser.

- Darrell Turnbull

C'est une expérience très enrichissante! Ce fut une bonne motivation pour améliorer mes habiletés dans l'enseignement par projet.

- Cory Walker
