

NICK RUTTER

President
Accesstec Inc.
Fredericton

www.Accesstec.ca
nickr@accesstec.ca

Accesstec, a New Brunswick company co-founded by Nick, services the needs of the health sectors of developing nations.

Accesstec has developed, sold and deployed ACSIS: a proprietary health information system that includes an advanced Electronic Health Record (EHR) for a growing number of international clients.

Nick brings a high level of skill to the process of innovation which uniquely equips him for tasks and challenges in today's information technology driven health care economy.

He is experienced in capturing the synergy among related business units and in strengthening existing organizations.